

40 Years After the Attica Uprising

Looking Back, Moving Forward

Sunday, September 11, 2011
5:30pm—7:30pm

Monday, September 12, 2011
8:30am—4pm

Tuesday, September 13, 2011
9am—4:30pm

Revisit Attica's Prisoner Rebellion in order to Understand the crisis of incarceration forty years later, and chart pathways to

Reform the prison system going forward.

The conference will include two keynote addresses, showings of Attica-related films, and live entertainment. Five panels of experts will discuss diverse topics, including: The Attica Uprising and Aftermath; Prisons, Empowerment, and Resistance; Prison Violence in Feminist Perspective; Past Demands, Current Concerns; and Looking Forward: Prison Reform in an Era of Mass Incarceration and Fiscal Crisis.

Registration is free but required for admission to all events; free parking is also available. For more information and to register, visit <http://www.law.buffalo.edu/baldycenter/attica40/> or contact Professor Teresa Miller, University of Buffalo Law School, at tmiller@buffalo.edu or 716-645-2391.

Event Sponsors

The Baldy Center for Law and Social Policy
Criminal Justice Department, Buffalo State College
Prisoners' Legal Services of New York
The University of Buffalo Law School